RESCUE OF GIANTS

CHICAGO, May 18.—Phil Douglas came to the rescue of the Giants in the tenth aning of to-day's game with the Cube ard as the result of his gift edged twiriing the Ghata won in the twelfth by a score of 8 to 6.

It was the most critical moment of the struggle when Douglas stepped to the mound. The Cubs had just scored two runs off Hubbell, tieing the Giants at 6 to 6. The bases all were filted, no one was out and there seemed no barrier to a victory for the home team. But Douglas proved to be the barrier, for to the complete discomfiture of the big crowd not a Cub was able to get across the plate. The Giants played a strong uphill game. With the score 4 to 6 against them they tied the Cubs at 4 to 4 with them they tied the Cubs at a to two runs in the ninth. Then the Giants tailed two more in the tenth only again to be tied in the home team's half of the inning. In this seasion John Mo-Graw was ordered from the field by Umpire Moran,
